If your man or male friend likes to walk around the house in just his boxers while listening to music, why don't you get him Play's iBoxer?

The iBoxer is made of cotton and spandex and is no ordinary pair of boxer shorts: it contains a front pocket to hold an iPod or other MP3 player, even a slim cell phone! It's available in black, orange, and turquoise (even a green printed color) for $22.00 from Freshpair.com.

Best of all, if you buy 2 pairs, you'll receive 3 free iTunes.

And don't worry ladies, I'm sure Play will also design an iBikini. Their site is currently under construction, but it looks like something is in the works!
