Q With so many underwear brands, features, and styles, where does one begin?

A First you need to stop and think what style suits you best! You'll have many options from a low brief, bikini brief, hip brief, thong, boxer brief, loose-fitting boxer, and your traditional boxer shorts. Find a style or two that appeals to you and give them a try. Search at your local department store or look online. You'll see that you have many options to choose from. One of our favorite websites to search for underwear is FreshPair.com. It offers the gay male so many options it's overwhelming. But have fun and experiment. Some underwear brands that we really like are Calvin Klein Underwear, a(x)ist, Adam+Eve, Andrew Christian, Diesel, and DKNY.
