

National Underwear Day

By: Rosa Kaftan | Friday, August 5th 10:10 AM

Underwear has a use by date (yes, it's true) and chances are your fraying, graying undercrackers expired a long long time ago... So, throw them away! However, fret not for we at Antenna would not be so cruel as to inflict a commando situation upon the world. Today is National Underwear Day and in celebration of all things undergarment, they are giving away 5,000 pairs of underwear! Enter via the website freshpair.com to win yourself a pair of box fresh undies...
