

Every Day Should Pop!

365 Days of Cake Pops

This is a challenge I have given myself to see if I can create a new cake pop every day. All in addition to the Pop.O.Lious brand. National, each day is recognized for something and I'm going to come up with a themed cake pop to match each of these 'special' occasions. My family loves a good reason to celebrate and this will give us something to smile about every day!

My goal is to inspire your creativity, for you to walk away learning a random fact or two, and, of course, to brighten your day.

National Underwear Day

Pop.O.Lious, LLC

The first National Underwear Day was in 2003, so today marks the 9th annual celebration!

Founded by Freshpair.com, National Underwear Day is aimed at focusing on the public's awareness of underwear in the spirit of grand celebration. This is the day when underwear becomes not just the first thing you put on and the last thing you take off, but the most important thing you wear all day.

So, do yourself (and everyone else) a favor, and make sure you're wearing a fresh pair!

To help give this whole underwear uprising a kick in the pants, we'll be celebrating today with our very own Bra Cake Pops!
